

New Bible Opposed in Public Rally

Rev. Andrew Duty will address the Protest Rally at the First Baptist Church of Wilmington, 915 Neptune Ave., Friday, January 30 at 7:30 p.m. The subject of the address is: "Approve or Disapprove—an objective examination of the Revised Standard Version." The meeting is one of 3000 rallies called for by the American Council of Christian Churches to document opposition to the new Bible.

"A great deal of time and money has been spent to get across the idea that here is an up-to-date Bible in our present language. In the actual text, however, the new version merely reproduces many ancient heresies of the past centuries. Perhaps that is the reason a recent Gallup poll showed 22 per cent opposition to the new Bible, with 50 per cent still undecided. Nothing of recent years has so stirred the Christian public," Rev. Duty said regarding his speech.

Rev. Duty is pastor of the First Fundamental Baptist Church of Waleria and instructor of Greek grammar at the Los Angeles Baptist Theological Seminary.

Slate First Aid Course In Waleria

Mrs. Meade Ferguson of Kettler Knolls is the instructor of the Standard First Aid Course which has been set for January 27 at 7 p. m., announced Mrs. Guy Richardson, disaster chairman of Pacific Hills and the Waleria area. The Waleria Recreation building located at 242nd and Ocean streets in Waleria will be the site where the course will take place.

The second evening of second lesson will be held the following Tuesday, Feb. 3, at the same time and place, the instruction to be continued every Thursday and Tuesday evenings until the course is completed.

"We invite interested persons to join us on January 27," said Mrs. Richardson, "as this course will assist every homemaker, mother and parents with a true knowledge of first aid."

There are lots of people that think that the world is improved by the passage of resolutions.

You may have noticed that a man of integrity seldom delivers a lecture upon the virtues of integrity. It is getting so now that a working man finds it very hard to find the time to keep up with his work.
